BESPOKE

A Case Study

MANDARIN ORIENTAL HYDE PARK

London, United Kingdom

At Claybrook we love a challenge and the renovation of this iconic and eccentric heritage building certainly was a challenge indeed. Narrow doorways and challenging site conditions did not make the task of achieving sumptuous 5 star luxury an easy one, but trust Joyce Wang to pull it off so expertly.

One of London's most celebrated five-star hotels, the Mandarin Oriental Hyde Park exudes an enticing mix of heritage and contemporary luxury. For the recently completed renovation project, Claybrook collaborated with internationally renowned Hong Kong designer Joyce Wang to devise a built-in seamless soaking tub for the guest rooms, making the most of the space at hand.

BESPOKE DESIGN

Housed in an Edwardian-style building, formerly the Hyde Park Hotel and operating as a hotel since 1902, the premises are listed meaning that designers had to work with the existing layout.

As a result, after close study of the site conditions and bathroom configurations, we painstakingly designed over 7 variations of our Bespoke soaking tub to fit the many room layouts and sizes.

CHALLENGES ON SITE

Limited space to maneuver the baths on site proved to be the greatest challenge of the project!

Our design team devised a 2-part design for assembly on site. Visiting the site to ensure all parts were able to fit in lifts, through doorways and room entrances. Our in-house technicians then jumped on a flight to the U.K. to personally oversee installation and final touch ups.

TRIED + TESTED

4-hole tapware was installed on the deck of the bath. To facilitate the maintenance of tapware in the fast moving hospitality environment, a unique invisible magnetic access door was integrated into the design.

FOUR SEASONS PRIVATE RESIDENCES

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

The Four Seasons Private Residences in Kuala Lumpur is a new benchmark in sophisticated urban living. With 242 units, ranging from smaller one and two bedrooms, up to seven bedroom penthouses, all of the units feature spectacular views of the adjacent Kuala Lumpur City Centre, as well as a beautifully landscaped 20-hectare (50-acre) park.

Wilson Associates worked with the team at Claybrook in selecting our minimalist Skye baths in Dover White to compliment the contemporary interiors and the end result is truly spectacular.

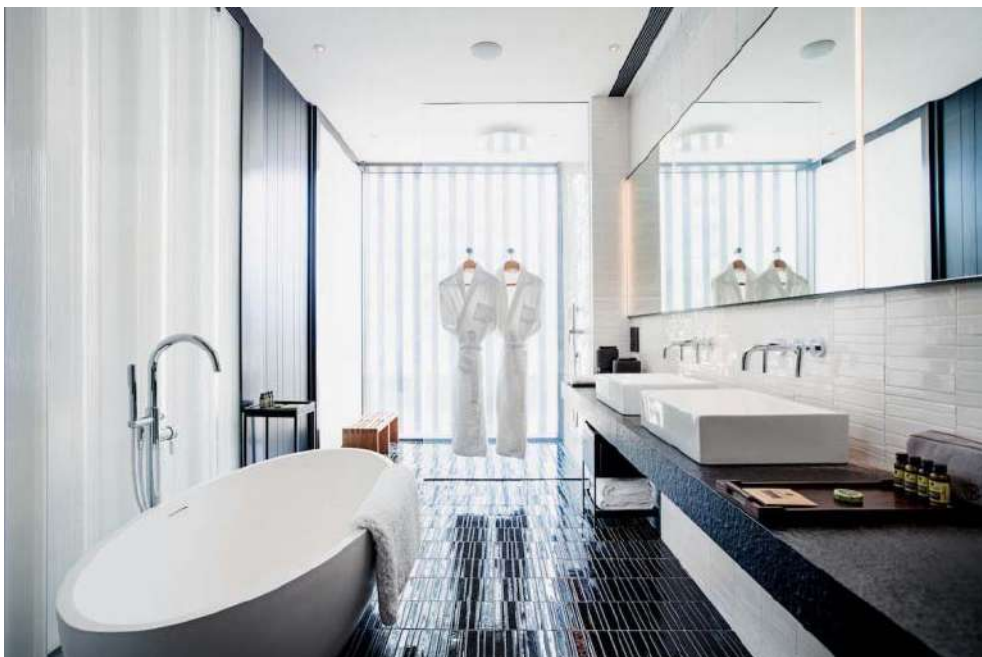

THE MIDDLE HOUSE

Shanghai, China

With interiors by Milan-based architect and designer Piero Lissoni and under Swire Hotels' award-winning "The House Collective", The Middle House hotel offers 111 guest rooms as well as 102 serviced apartments in The Middle House Residences.

Lissoni drew inspiration from traditional elements of Shanghai heritage and art-deco architecture when devising the interior scheme. With minimalist intentions complimented by bold lines and clean silhouettes, Claybrook's free standing Ellipse bath was selected for an intriguing marriage of old and new.
