COMING TO AMERICA

US Retail Launch

Our latest customer Lincoln at the Earth Elements showroom in Montana inspecting an Echo basin.

2020 was a year full of “firsts”, most of which we are more than ready to put behind us (any parents in the room?!). While business slowed and projects stalled for everyone in our industry, our team in the United States remained firmly focused on the future and we are thrilled to announce the launch of a stocked-range of products now available at 12 noteworthy outlets across the country. We worked with our US customers to select a range of our most popular items, and these are now stocked stateside and ready to ship!

We have spent much of 2020 working from home to set up this initiative, and our dedicated partners have displays in place and are all set and ready to fulfill your orders. We would like to thank you all for your support and for investing in us during this turbulent time. Feel free to explore the range via the “Ready to Ship” tab on our website: www.claybrookinteriors.com/en/product/ready-to-ship/. Our retail partners and their contact details can be found here www.claybrookinteriors.com/en/locations/, and I know they are looking forward to welcoming you in their shops soon!

MOUNT NICHOLSON RESIDENCE

Hong Kong

Hand Crafted Bianco Carrara bath and basins, Kintsugi wall and floor tiles.

Nestled between the mountains, the hill-top residential area of Mount Nicholson enjoys expansive views of Hong Kong's Victoria Harbour. This private residential home at Mount Nicholson features monumental interiors by Studio 1618 and is among the most expensive property per square foot in Asia.

In the master bathroom pictured above, our Kintsugi tiles adorn the walls creating an abstract textural appeal which expertly offsets the hardness of the material. A breathtaking bathtub hard-carved from a single block of Bianco Carrara marble sits beside floor to ceiling windows overlooking the soothing jungle foliage outside. Two matching stone basins complete the suite.

Auckland, New Zealand

Our retail partners in New Zealand, Plumblin, are off to a fantastic start in 2021 having recently completed this stunning residential renovation project in Remuera Road, Auckland. The stunning interiors were created by Katie Scott of Sticks+Stones Design who selected our Opus bath in Night Sky for the master bathroom.
