THE OLD WAR OFFICE RESIDENCES

BY RAFFLES

London

Britain's historic Old War Office, the iconic Whitehall building inhabited by Britain's most famous statesmen and spies, from Winston Churchill to Ian Fleming, will become the first Raffles hotel in London. The impressive project was designed by New York based Thierry Despont.

Opening in late 2023, Raffles London at The OWO will host London's first Raffles Hotel, a prestigious new hotel in a landmark Grade II listed building in Whitehall. Situated in one of London's most historically important and powerful addresses, the building has undergone a monumental transformation comprising 120 rooms and suites alongside 85 spacious private residences. Visitors will be able to visit 11 destination restaurants and bars, including a grand space on the building's rooftop which features panoramic views across Whitehall, The Mall and onto Buckingham Palace.

TURTLE BAY RESORT

Hawaii

Turtle Bay Resort, an O'ahu landmark since 1972, has reopened after a major renovation that embodies the very best of the North Shore's captivating natural beauty, adventurous spirit, and rich surf culture. Spearheading this transformation is Dianna Wong, founder of Los Angeles-based architecture firm, Dianna Wong Architecture+ Interior Design.

Located on O'ahu's North Shore known for its legendary surf, Turtle Bay Resort encompasses nearly 1,300 acres with five miles of unspoiled coastline and seven beaches. The resort showcases 410 ocean-view guest rooms and suites plus 42 oceanfront Ocean Bungalows.

Claybrook were delighted to work with Diana Wong in providing Ellipse baths for the updated bathrooms.
